

ASSOC. PROF. DR. AHMET DAĞ

After having held office as a teacher at the Ministry of National Education, he worked as a Teaching Fellow at Kırklareli University, Department of Philosophy. Currently he is a teaching fellow at Uludağ University, Faculty of Theology, Department of Philosophy History He makes studies on the topics and in the fields such as Turkish-Islam Idea, Western Philosophy, modernity and post-modernity. In the recent period, he intensified his studies on the philosophical movements such as humanism, trans-humanism and post-humanism. His books named Fatal Violence -Baudrillard's Idea, David Hume in Formation of Contemporary English Jewish Civilization and Trans-humanism: Transformation of Human and the World, were published. He has studies on books in preparation for publication, named "Turkish Idea in the Center of Modernization" and "World Without Human: Trans-humanism". Furthermore, in addition to published book sections and academic articles, he has writings and articles published on various journals and publications such as Yolcu, Ayraç, Dil ve Edebiyat, Umran, Kamuda Sosyal Politika, Sözşehri and on websites such as Timetürk, Dünya Bülteni, Düşünce Feneri and Fikir Coğrafyası.