

Prof. Dr. Ayhan BIÇAK

Istanbul University- Faculty of Literature – Department of Philosophy

Biography: Ayhan Bıçak (1956 Erzincan) graduated from Istanbul Behçet Kemal Çağlar High School in 1976. He studied at Istanbul University, Faculty of Literature, Department of Philosophy from 1978 to 1982. In 1985, he completed his graduate study at the same university with his research titled Understanding of Human, Community and History of Aristotle. In 1991, he was appointed to Istanbul University, Department of Philosophy as a research fellow. In 1992, he defended his doctorate thesis titled Comprehension of History of Platon. He became an Associate Professor in 1997 and Professor in 2007. He is continuing his studies at the same University and same Department as a teaching fellow. He is teaching in the fields of history, politics, value, ancient philosophies and Turkish idea.