

PROF. DR. NİLÜFER PEMBEÇİOĞLU

Istanbul University, Faculty of Communication - Department of Radio, Television and Cinema
- Teaching Fellow

Starting from 1986, she has been carrying out her academic researches within the body of Istanbul University. She has bulletins, articles, researches and projects in national and international arena focused on education, communication, health, journalism, peace journalism, new media, media literacy, linguistics and semiology, child, woman, branding, advertisement and public relations. Among her field researches, there are those researches of her with children, women, migrants and hearing-impaired, orthopedically handicapped and otherwise children, and in addition she has 8 documentary films, 8 animation films and around 30 short films with national and international demonstration, script of which was written and which was directed by her.